Newchwang is still in the hands of the Chinese.
[We knew this days ago. But what about Mr. McKen? Is it not a fact that, after all their contemptible brag and bluster, the Japs have completely abandoned all hope of capturing that famous Manchurian city? King Frost and Chinese pluck and perseverance seem to have damped the effervescent ardour of the Illipulana considerably—and long before Peking was sighted on the distant horizon!—Ed., Hongkong Telegraph.]

THE Japan Gazette of December 24th has the following regarding one of the best and smartest men in Yokohama—"The betrothal is announced of Dr. Gordon Munro to Miss Rita, one of our most esteemed residents. THE Japanese papers, as we have repeatedly stated, are not in love with the gentry posing as foreign war correspondents in—well, a long way out of danger. The Yokohama Specimen for them as follows (the translation is in the Yokohama Specimen). We are accustomed to the disclosures of foreign newspapers published in the Yokohama Specimen, but knowing what class of men their editors are, we do not attach any importance to what they have to say against Japan and the Japanese. We did expect, however, that writers for respectable foreign papers would prove themselves to be gentlemen. We find we are entirely mistaken. They conduct themselves as better than Treaty Port editors—with the most unpardonable ingratitude they seem to be bent on calumniating Japan. The Government should take steps to get rid of such obnoxious pests.

THE annual tea and 'after meeting' promoted by that sterling friend of mariners, the Rev. A. C. Goldsmith, was held at the Salters' Home, West Point, last night. The Right Reverend Bishop Gordon presided, and there were also present about 100 guests, including a large number of ladies. Commodore Boyes, R.N., and Captain Angus MacLeod, of the Gibraltar, were the evening's very pleasantly spent, the carols, songs and instrumental numbers are the extensive programme being highly appreciated. Commodore Boyes' address was especially well received, also Captain MacLeod's speech, which was just what was needed to put the guests to bed with enthusiasm and satisfaction. There was an "opening" of the evening by the Chairman that Mr. Goldsmith will shortly leave the Colony on a well earned holiday, and it was hoped, he said, by who knew him that he would return to the Colony thoroughly refreshed and able to continue with renewed vigor the good work he had been carrying on in his midst. As soon as the annual meeting was over, the remarks had subsided, the evening was brought to a fitting conclusion by the whole company joining in singing "Onward Christian, onward go."
